Welfare Scheme for Agricultural Labour

272 PROF RASA SINGH RAWAT : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state

(a) whether the Government have recently held talks with the representatives of various labour organisations,

(b) if so, the details of the issue discussed and outcome thereof, and

(c) steps taken or proposed to be taken by the Government for the compliance of labour-welfare laws?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM) : (a) to (c) The Union Labour Minister and the Prime Minister met representatives of the Central Trade Union Organisations on 24th June, 1996 to hear the views of the Trade Unions on matters concerning the workers such as (i) labour protection and social security for agricultural labour, (ii) Uniform minimum wage, (iii) recognition of trade unions based on secret ballot, (iv) elimination of child labour, (v) amendments to Industrial Disputes and Trade Union Acts etc. The trade union leaders stressed the need for creating a proper and congenial atmosphere for maintaining industrial harmony in the country. They laid emphasis on taking measures for protection and generation of employment and employment benefits, review of the functioning of BIFR, revival of NTC mills, comprehensive legislation for agricultural workers, comprehensive measures for elimination of child labour etc. In deference to the wishes of the trade union leaders, steps have been taken to intensify labour inspections and to strengthen the labour enforcement machinery for effective implementation of labour welfare laws.
